

Youth and Digital Culture

FREN 250 - FALL 2025
Instructor: Lyr Colin
Section 34262R: Tu-Th 2:00- 3:50pm

How do we exist online, and how does our offline culture influence the way we treat our online experiences? How do young people articulate their own position within a francophone context?

In this section, we will explore the different discourses around youth and digital culture in French and Francophone literature and media, using film, poetry, and novels taking place in and around the digital medium.

FREN250 is the first course counting towards the major or minor in French.
